Gregory is an associate in our Privacy and Data Management group. Gregory has experience assisting clients with a range of privacy, data management, cybersecurity and anti-spam compliance matters. This includes drafting privacy policies, developing information governance and security procedures, advising on privacy and anti-spam laws and practices, and advising on privacy-related aspects of complex commercial agreements.

As an IAPP Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/C), Gregory is familiar with Canadian privacy laws at federal, provincial and territorial levels, including in health-related contexts.

Gregory obtained his common and civil law degrees from McGill University. During law school, Gregory was Co-President of the McGill Business Law Association and worked as a Senior Editor for the McGill Journal of Law and Health. Prior to law school, Gregory obtained his MPhil in Global Public Health from the University of Bergen (Norway), and a B.A. Honours in Political Science and German Language from McGill University.
