Areas of Expertise

- Mergers and Acquisitions

Rabia is a paralegal in Osler's Corporate group. She supports the firm's corporate lawyers by carrying out audits of minute books, performing various public register searches, and drafting reports and other required documents. She also prepares, among others, documentation for incorporations, organizations, amendments, mergers, continuations and dissolutions.

Rabia has over ten years' experience in corporate law. Prior to practising in Canada, she worked in Mauritius for companies with a global presence in the financial services sector, mainly providing corporate secretarial and compliance services. Her experience has enabled her to develop an integrated approach to client service and to acquire the skills required to ensure that the quality of her work reflects the firm's standards.
